

COMMUNITY BUILDERS WANTED!

Serve as a Washington Public Library Board Trustee

The Washington Public Library is seeking a new Library Board Trustee to help guide the future of one of our community's most important institutions.

You don't need to be a librarian or a teacher—or even a big reader—to serve. Today's library is more than books. It's a place for early childhood learning, makerspaces and technology access, community events, and lifelong learning for residents of all ages.

We are especially interested in candidates with experience in areas such as:

-  Finance or budgeting
-  Construction or facilities management
-  Business leadership or strategic planning
-  Project management

Library trustees help guide decisions about the library's long-term priorities, financial stewardship, building maintenance and improvements, and services that support the entire community.

This position is open ONLY to residents living within the city limits of Washington.
