

Burrell, Howard A. (1838-1916)

Howard A Burrell (1838-1916), editor and proprietor of the Washington Press, was born in Sheffield, Lorain Co., Ohio in 1838. He was a graduate of Oberlin College and moved to Washington in April 1886, when he purchased the Washington County Press. For several years prior to his coming to Washington, he was connected with the Cleveland (Ohio) Daily Leader and was its city editor. He is author of History of Washington County Iowa: From the First White Settlements to 1908, which was published in two volumes in 1909.

