

Cuddeback, Larry & Cheyenne

Larry Cuddeback graduated from Iowa State University in 1972 with a BS degree in Recreation Resource Management. He worked eight years with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers as a ranger and park manager before returning to the farm in 1980. In addition to farming, Larry operates a Christmas tree farm, enjoys deer hunting, cutting firewood, and his granddaughters. He resides in rural Washington County with his wife and one daughter.

Cheyenne Miller graduated from the University of Northern Iowa in 2004 with a BA degree in History. She is employed with Premier 1 Supplies, Ltd. as a merchandiser and also organized international travel. She resides with her husband and three young daughters in rural Washington County, Iowa. In her spare time she enjoys gardening, photography, traveling and spending time with friends and family.

