This form was prepared as part of a research/survey/nomination project in 2011-2012 funded by a HRDP grant from the State Historical Society of Iowa for the nomination of the Washington Downtown Historic District. The project was primarily structured to develop the nomination for the downtown, with additional research on each building documented on an Iowa Site Inventory form. The information below is taken from the table in the August 2012 draft of the nomination, with additional information documented on the property and photographs in the following sections.

Donovan Building - 206-208 N. Marion Avenue - State #92-00553 - Map #51 ~ 1 non-contributing building

(1) c.1895, c.1970s - gable front commercial

Historic information:

- c.1895 - built by David L. and Dora Donovan - 1897 and 1902 maps shows south half as dwelling, north half as wallpaper store, and paint shop at rear - David was house painter, and 1st car owner in city in 1901
- 1905 - building sold, Carris Novelty Company in rear, Iowa Pride Stock Power Co in north (208), tea store in south (206) in 1909/1910; c.1912-c.1918/c.1925 - Western Hog Oiler Company - remodeled into single 1st story space (206)
- 1925-c.1930 - H. & A. Baking Company (E.T. Hansen, Lee Anderson) - remodeled building - oven at rear
- 1935 - Sandwich Shop, 1941 - Edith's Place, 1953 - Edith's Sandwich Shop (Edith Beaty owned from 1936 to 1957)
- c.1960 - bought by Farmers Implement Company - expand into space from 210 - remodeled both storefronts jointly
- 2008 - Powercom
- 2012 - Powercom

Architectural information:

Height: 2 story
Walls: frame - asbestos/metal siding
Storefront: remodeled with concrete blocks to tie to building to north
Windows: covered by siding
Architectural details: -
Architect/Builder: -
Modifications: Historic: 1950s - storefront remodeled jointly with 210; Non-historic: -

7. Narrative Description

This is a two story gable-front frame commercial building constructed around 1895 as part residence and part commercial. The second story and gable are clad in asbestos siding, and the visible south side of the building is clad in metal siding. The roof is ridged steel. The storefront has been remodeled with concrete block in conjunction with the building to the north around 1960 for Farmers Implement Company. It has a central wood door with large window flanked by two large single-light windows. The asbestos shingle siding on the upper story has covered the earlier windows (see historic photo), and the metal siding on sides has covered those windows. A fixed awning extends across the front of the building and on to the front of the adjacent building to the north.
8. Narrative Statement of Significance

This two-story gable-front frame commercial building has been clad with siding on the upper portion of the facade and on the south elevation, covering window opening visible in a historic photograph of the building. As a result, the historic features and materials of the building have been obscured, and the building is counted as non-contributing in the Washington Downtown Historic District. If the siding were removed, it is recommended that the building be reassessed for historic significance. Despite the later storefront remodel, exposing the historic windows may be sufficient to reclassify the building as contributing in the historic district.

The 1892 Sanborn map shows a house on the north halves of Lots 5 and 6 in Block 3 at 208 N. Marion. Real estate developer Winfield Smouse bought the north halves of Lots 5, 6, and 7 in October 1894, and he then sold the property to Dora Donovan and husband in the same month. This building was likely built in 1895. The 1897 Sanborn map shows this two-story building on the south half of the north halves of the lots, and it identifies residential use in the south half of the building and wallpaper in the north half, with a paint shop at the rear of the building. The 1900 census lists David L. Donovan (33, house painter) with wife Dora (28) of nine years. D.L. Donovan is listed in the 1903 City Directory as a painter. The 1902 Sanborn map shows the same uses. The 1909 county history by H.A. Burrell has an interesting note - in 1901 Dave Donovan owned the first automobile in Washington, an Olds. By 1905, there were perhaps 25 cars in the city (Burrell 1909, Vol 1: 363).

The Donovans sold the building to L.H. O’Laughlin in 1905. The 1909 Sanborn map shows a tea store in the south half (206) and a store room in the north half (208), with Carris Novelty Company in the rear half of the building. Ed Carris invented and manufactured a one-match delivery box, as well as doing a variety of job work (Burrell 1909, Vol. 1: 434). The Iowa Pride Stock Powder Co. was listed at 208 N. Marion in the 1910 city directory, with Carris Novelty Company listed as at the rear of 206 N. Marion. They would move to a new location and continued to grow, expanding into manufacturing button machines by 1926.

The building was sold in 1912 to George Teas. The 1917 Sanborn map shows the Western Hog Oiler Company in the front half with office and shipping on the first story and a dwelling on the second story, and a tin shop in the rear. There is no longer any division for the north and south halves of the building, and it has an address of 206 N. Marion. An ad in 1920 notes that the Western Hog Oiler Company of Washington were manufacturers of the Ball, Ideal, and Capitol Hog Oilers, made of heavy galvanized iron with an improved oil burner to prohibit freezing.

In 1918, Teas sold the property to J.L. Lyon and F.C. Lyon. By 1926, the H & A Baking Company is using the building, listed as 206 N. Marion in the directory. E.T. Hansen and Lee Anderson form the company and remodeled this building in fall 1925, located across from the Methodist Church. It was repainted and many new features added (25th anniversary edition, Evening Journal, April 3, 1926, page 65). They moved around the corner a few years later to the larger building at 107 W. 2nd Street.
1931 Sanborn map shows the property as vacant, with the interior space combined into one large space with a small division for a store in the southwest corner and oven "not in use" at the east end. The 1935 City Directory indicates the Sandwich Shop at 206 N. Marion.

The Lyon family sold the building to Edith Beaty in 1936. The 1941 directory says Edith's Place (restaurant) is located there. On the 1943 Sanborn map, there is a wide opening in the north wall toward the rear of this building and the adjacent building to the north. The oven is still indicated at the rear. No listings were identified for 206 or 208 N. Marion in the 1950s. However, Edith's Sandwich Shop on N. Marion is noted among the restaurants in town in 1953, so she apparently continued her business here ("Washington is Served by Many Fine Restaurants," Washington Evening Journal, 60th Anniversary Edition, February 27, 1953, 82).

The building to the north at 210 N. Marion is occupied by the Farmers Implement Company in the 1950s and 1960s, and they may have overflowed into this building as well. They also built a large rear addition behind both buildings. Farmers Implement sold the combined property in 1981.

Powercom moved into the building in 2008.
